

Spending of University Students

Derek Shek

2022-09-22

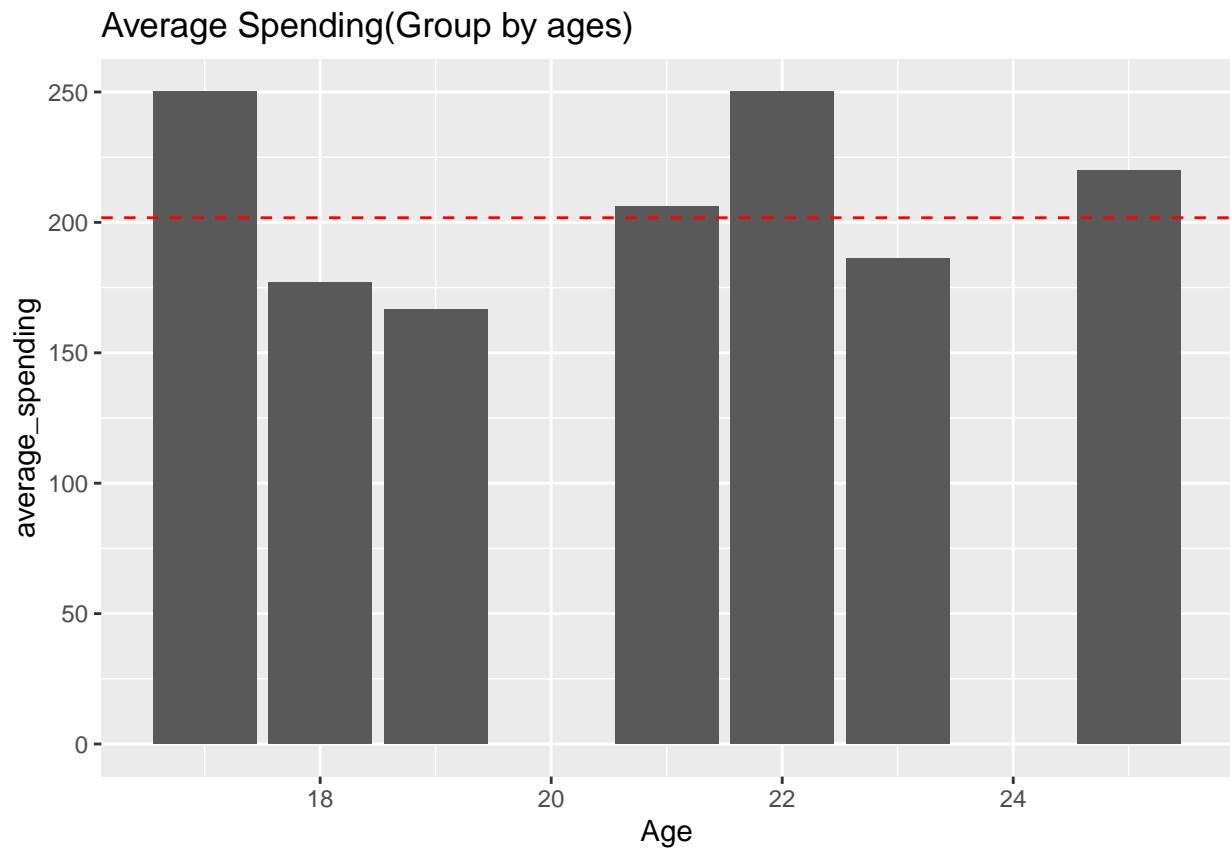

Introduction

In this research, the data of 105 university students spending in university are connected, clean, processed and analysed. This research is analyzing the relationship between their spending with different habits, such as:

- Age
- Year
- Gender
- Living: Where they live, such as:
 - Home
 - Hostel
- Scholarship: Whether they have Scholarship.
- Part_time_job: Whether they have part time jobs.
- Transporting: How to go to school, such as:
 - “No” meaning walking to school
 - Motorcycle
 - Car
- Smoking: Whether they smoke.
- Drinks: Whether they drink.
- Games_. Hobbies : Whether they have game hobbies.
- Monthly_Subscription : Whether they have monthly subscription like YouTube, Patron.

Average spending versus different habits

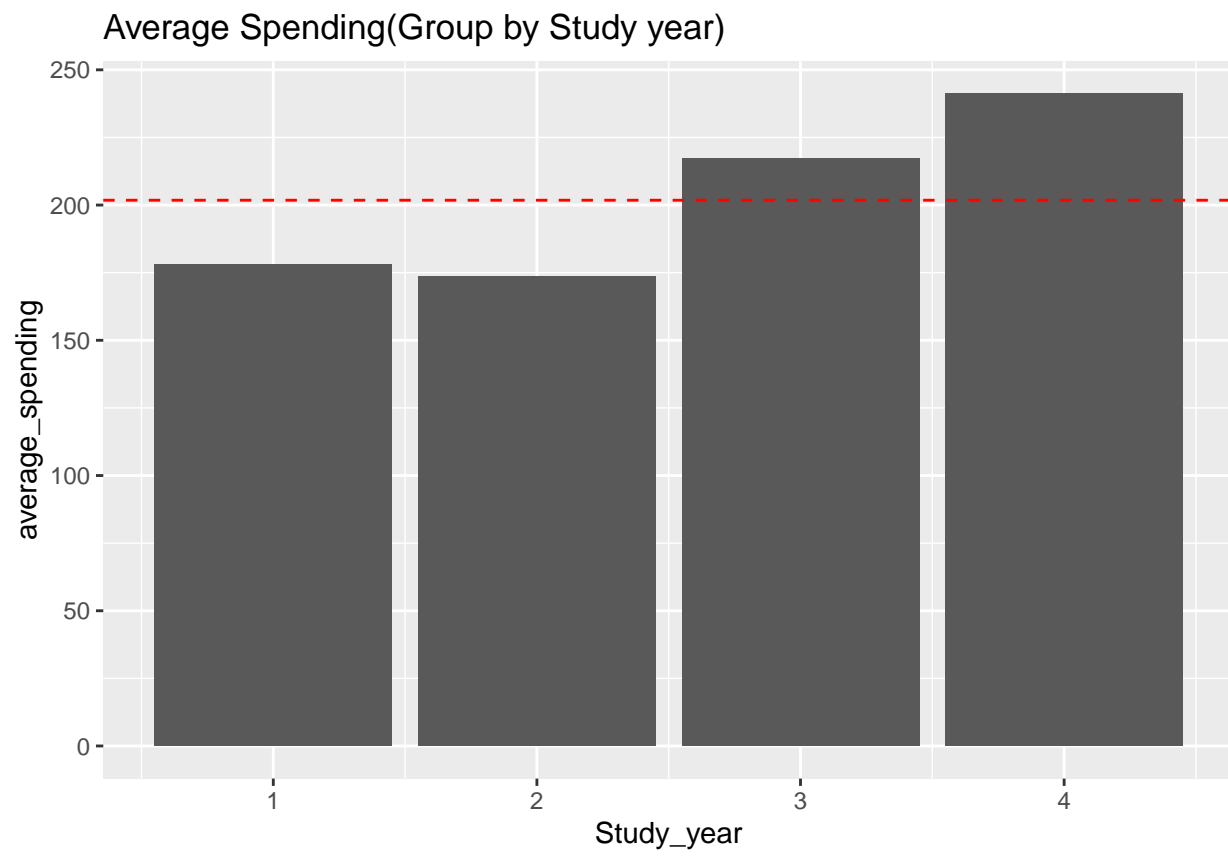

The overall average monthly spending of university students is £201.7822, and represented as red line as reference in following graphs of spending of students with different categories: # Ages

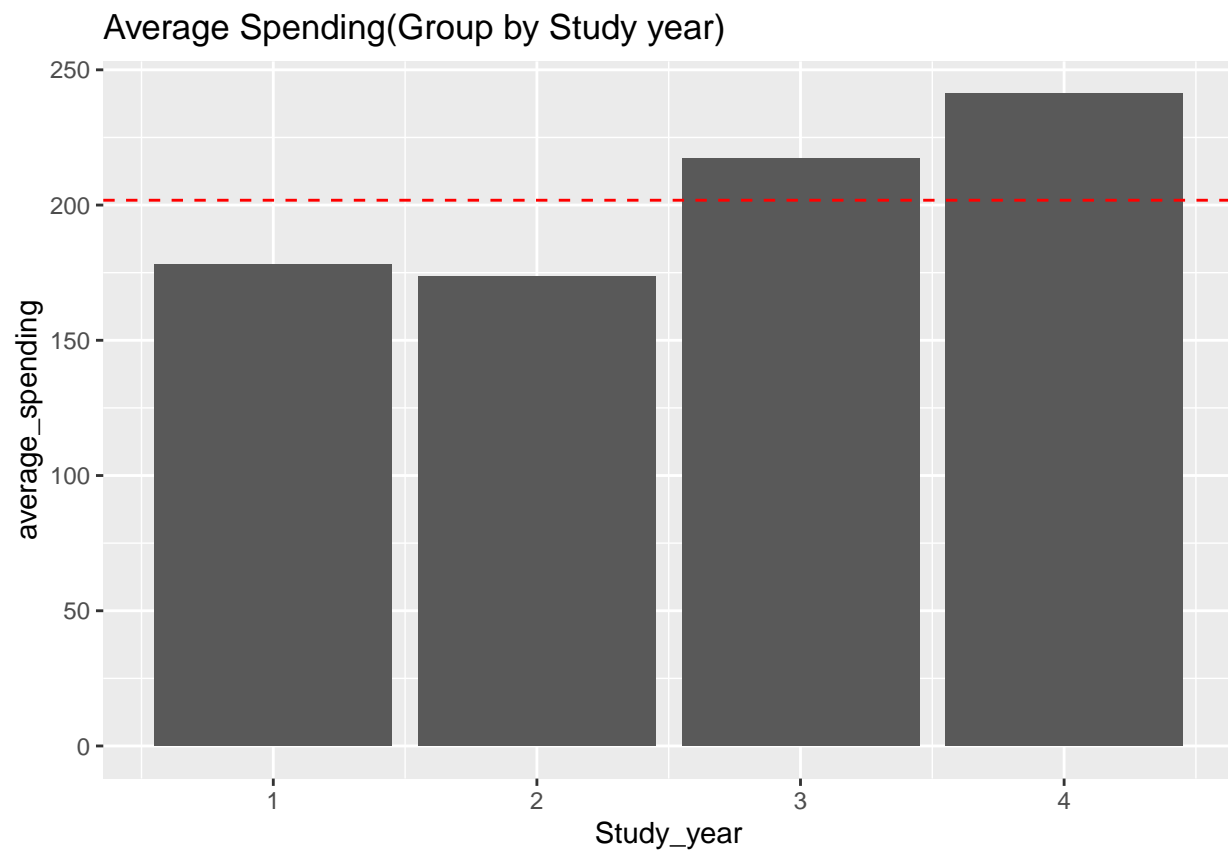

By Gender

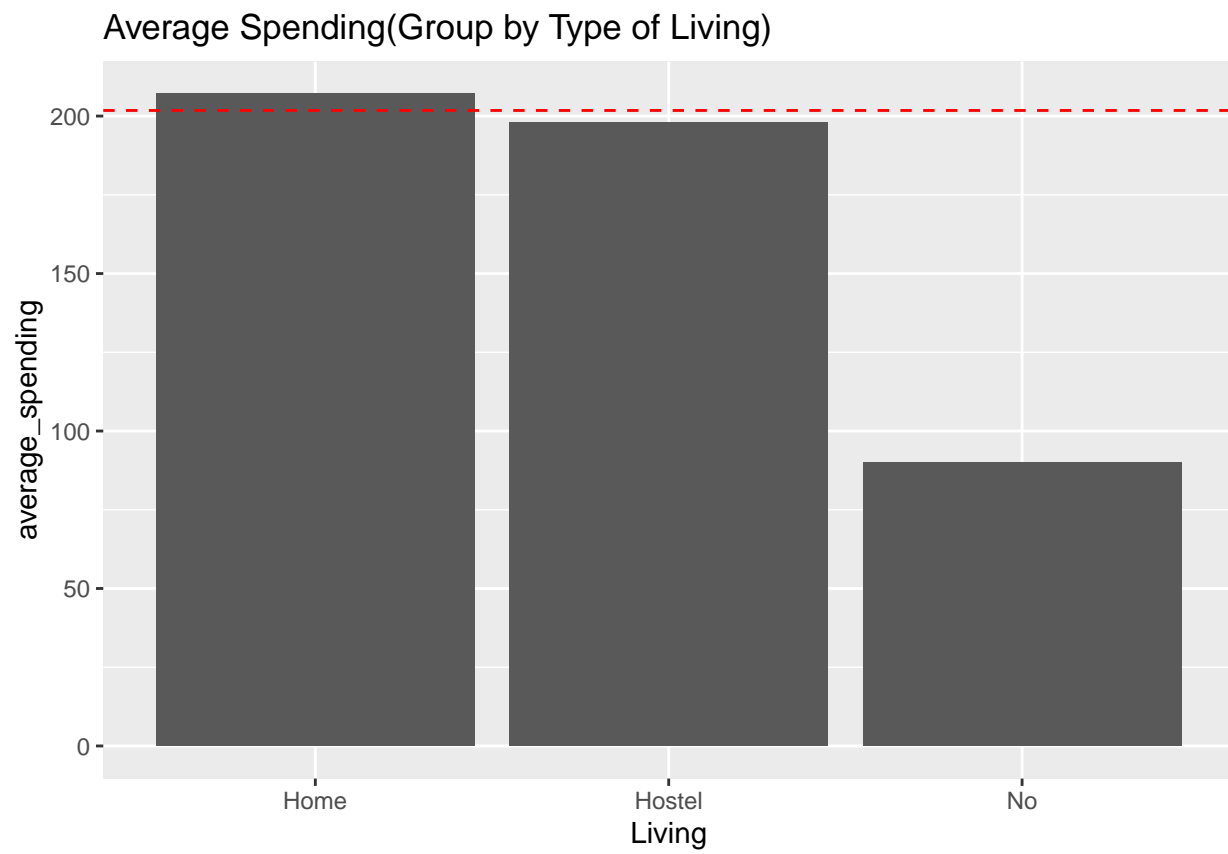

By Year

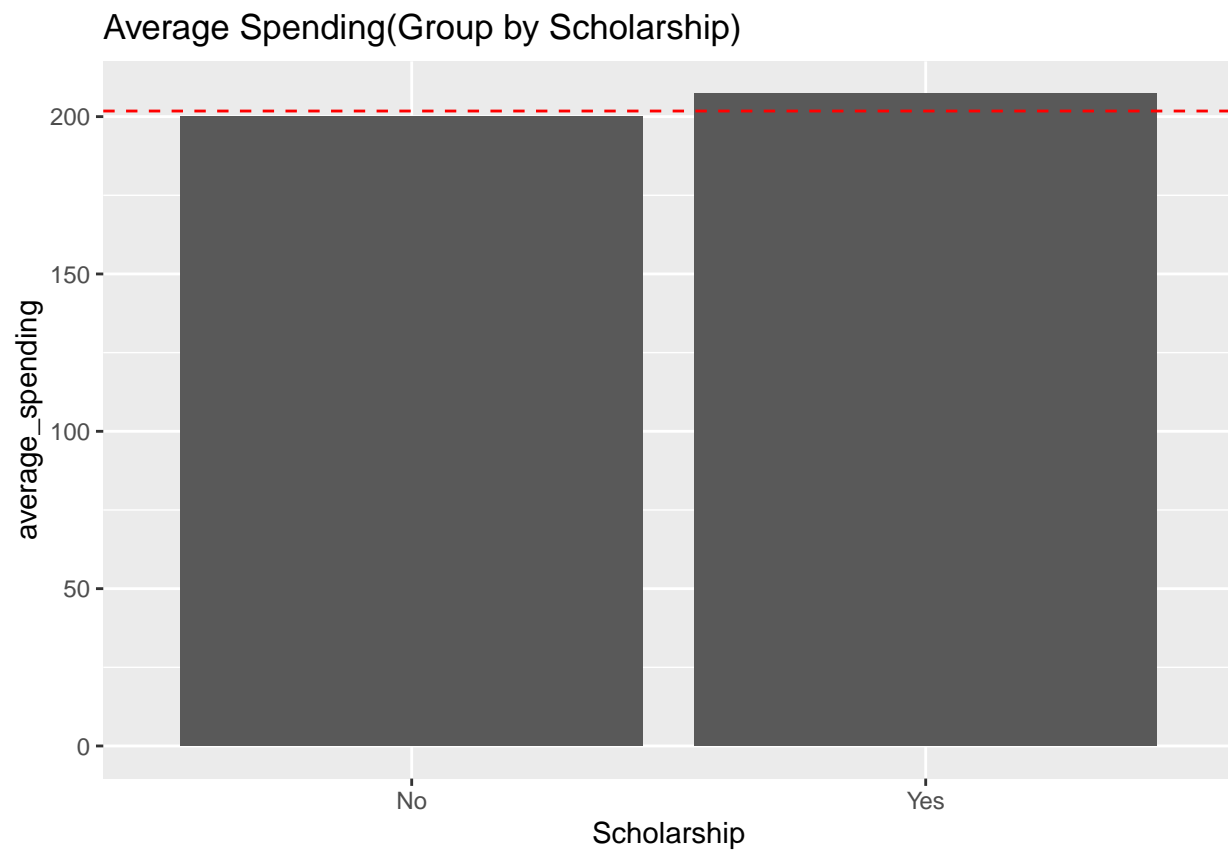

By Year

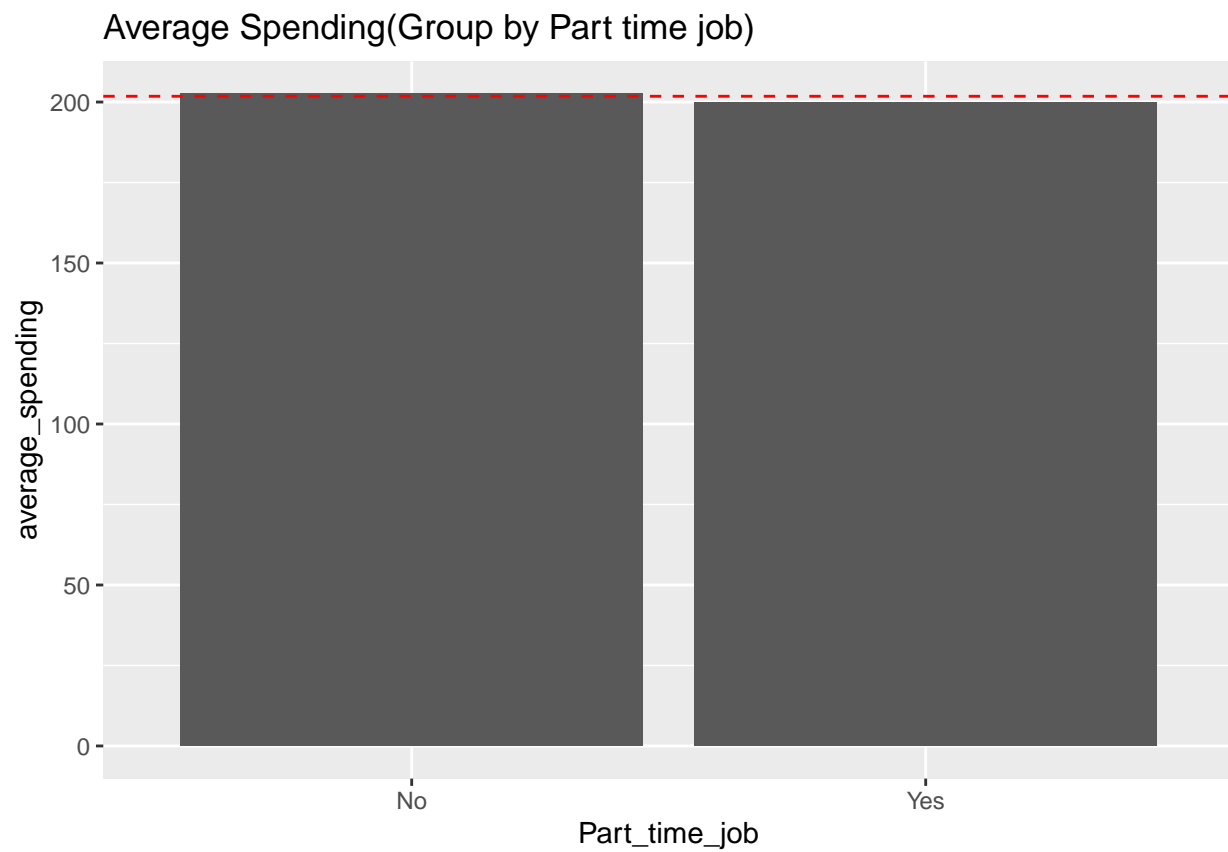

By Living

By Scholarship

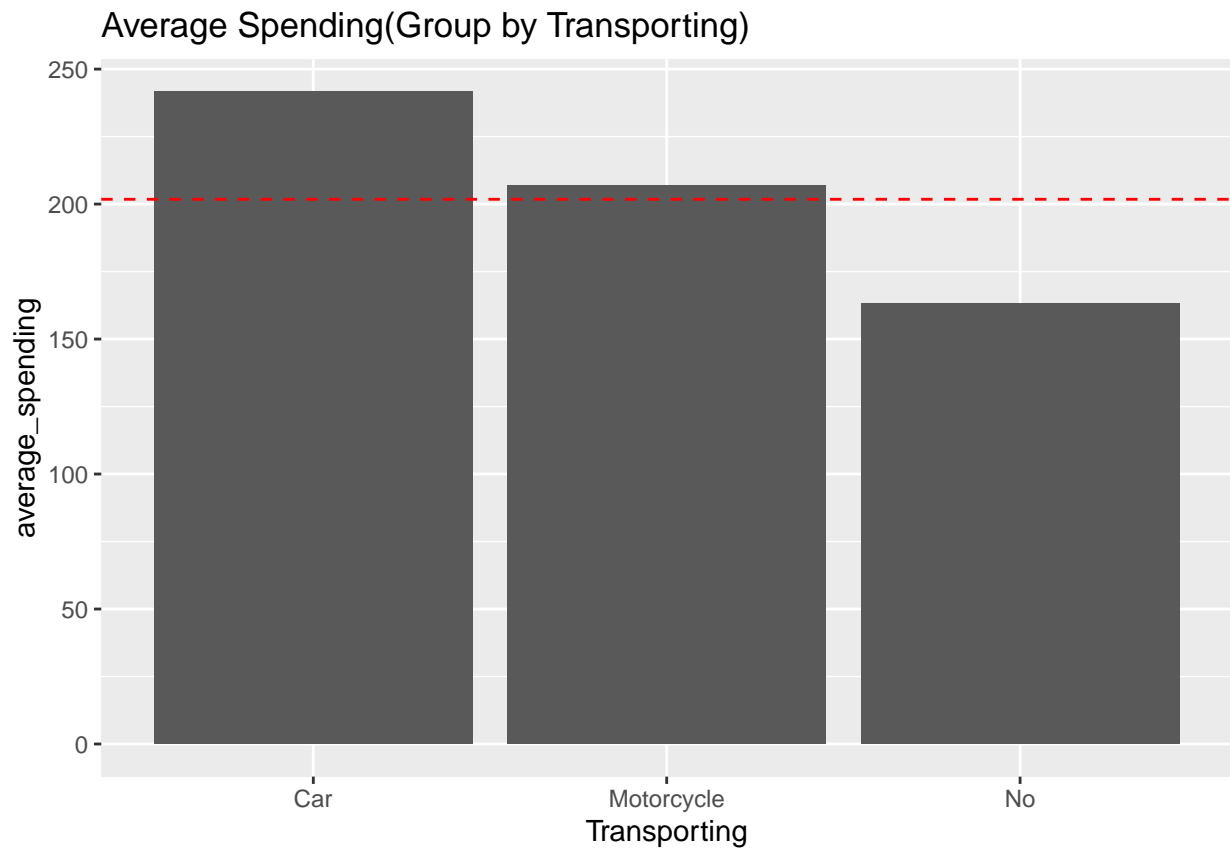

By Part time job

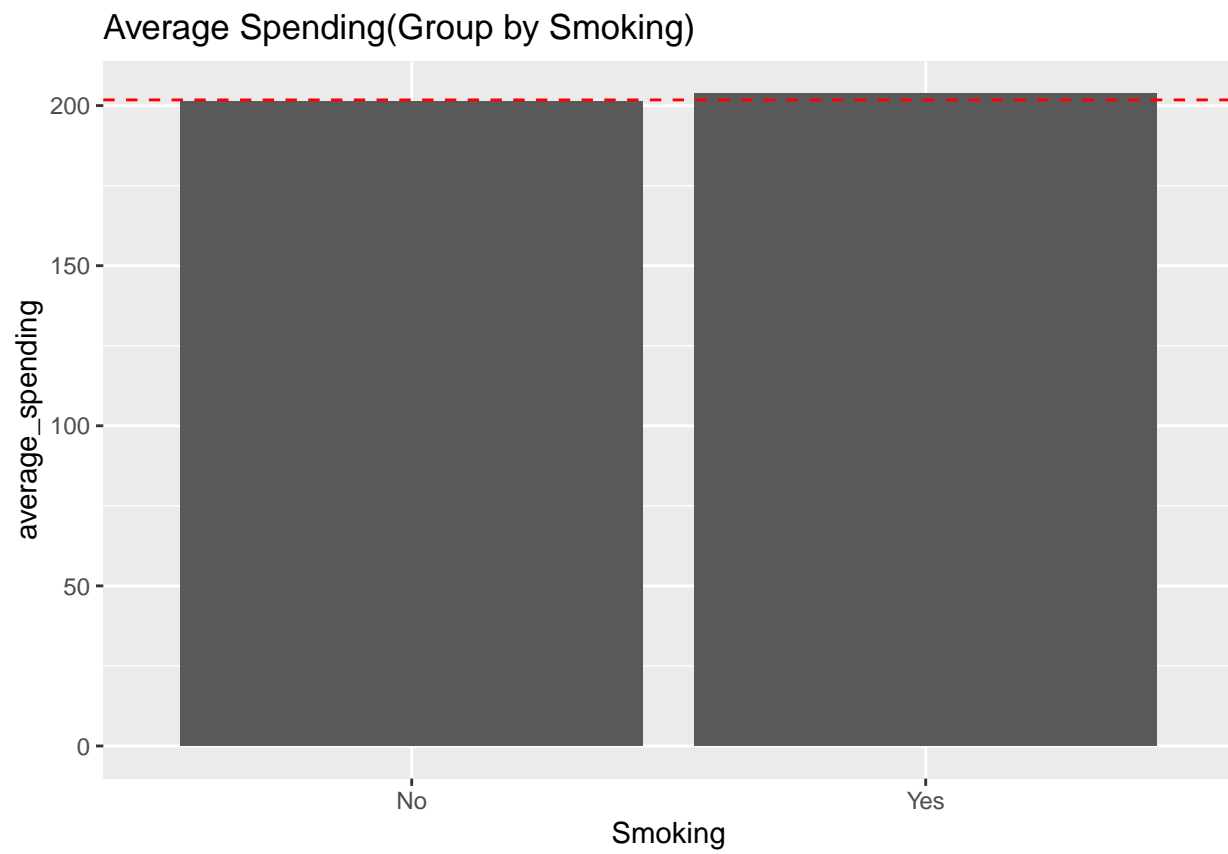

By Transporting

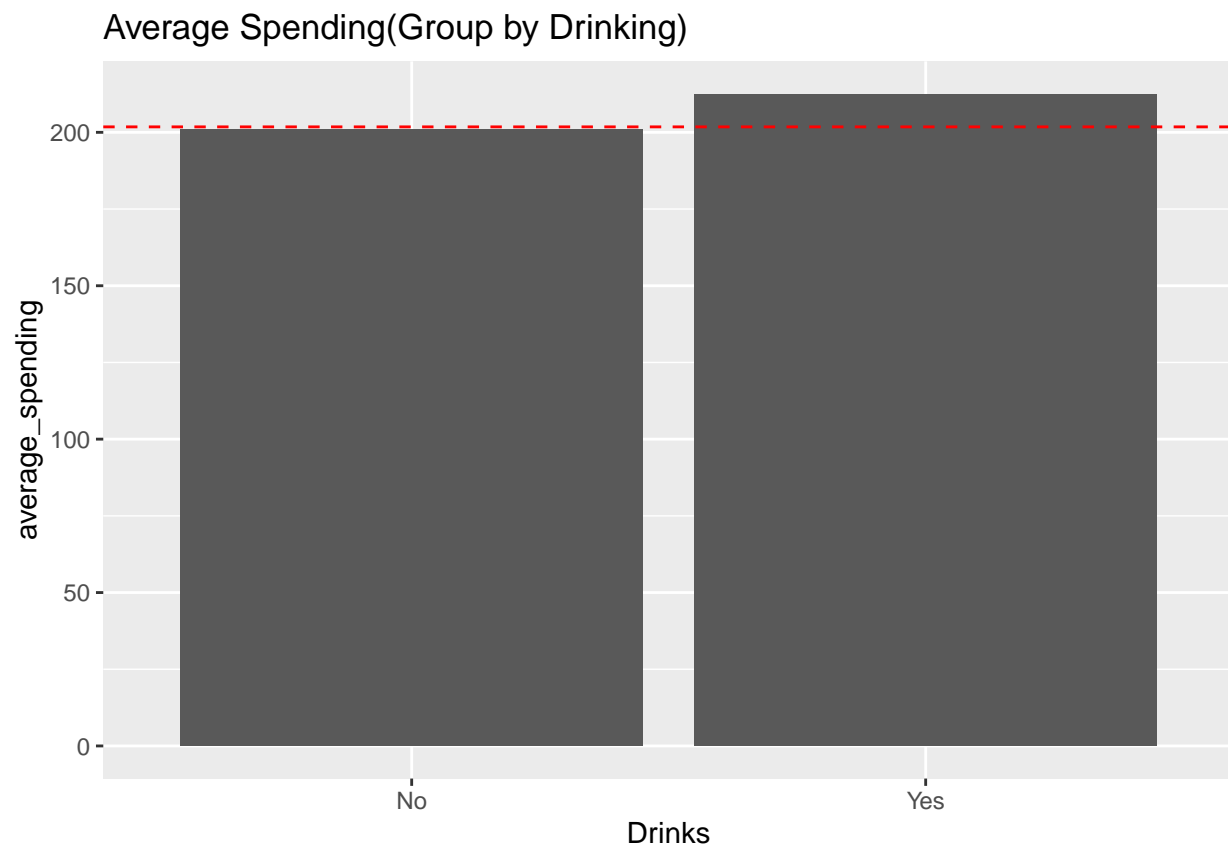

“No” means students go to university by walking.

By Smoking

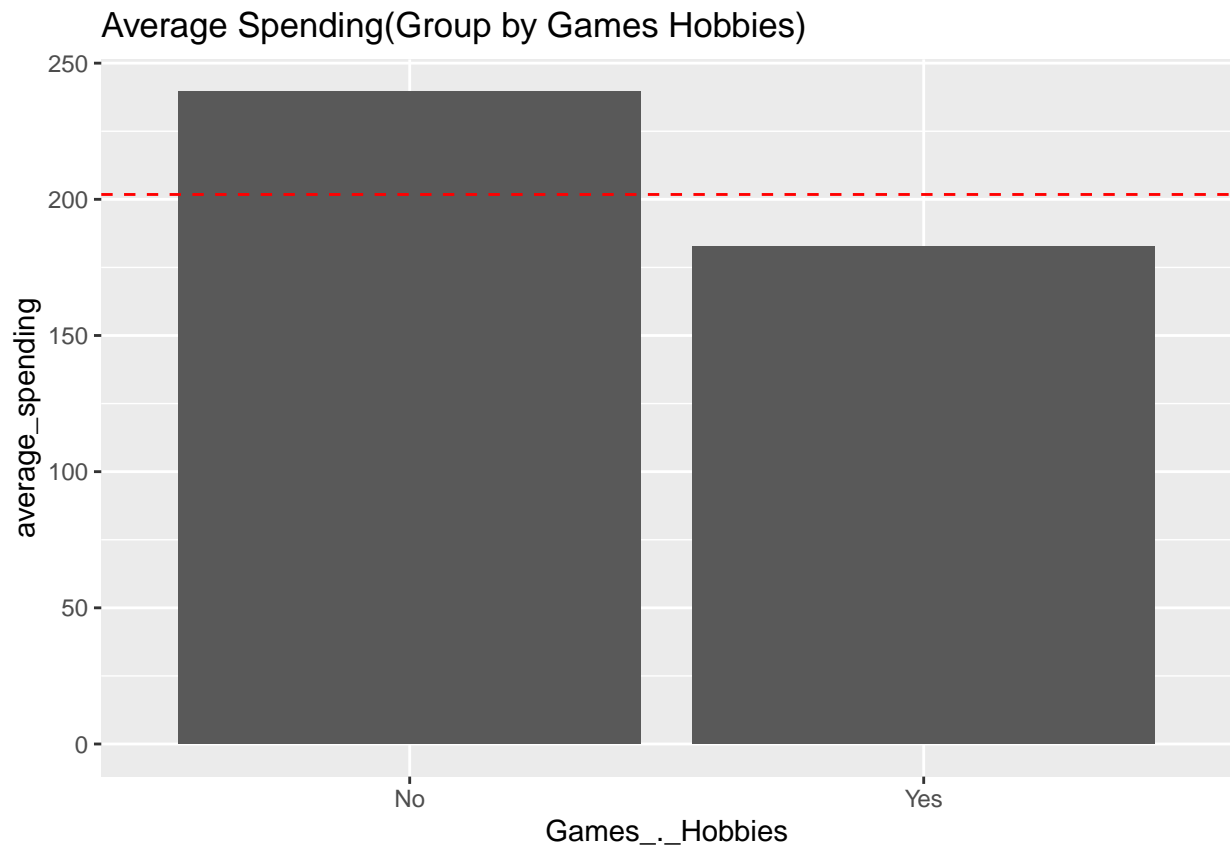

By Drinking

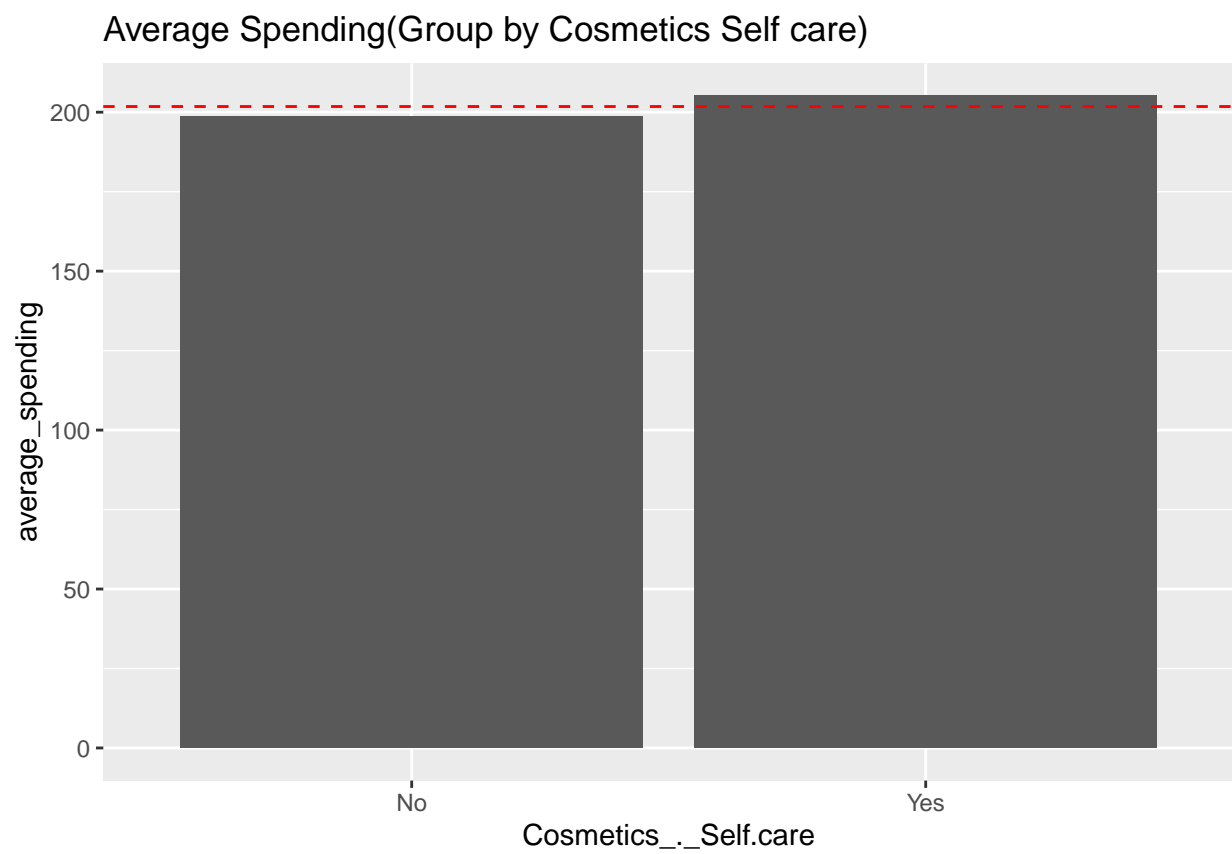

By Games Hobbies

There is a significant impact of gaming hobbies to the monthly spending of university students.

By Cosmetics Self care

By Monthly Subscription

